

LONDON MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY
GOOD PRACTICE
SCHEME

London Mathematical Society

Good Practice Scheme Workshop

Thursday, 15th November 2012

De Morgan House, 57-58 Russell Square, London WC1

10.30 Coffee and Registration

11.00 Introduction

Current position on the Good Practice Scheme (GPS).

Cathy Hobbs, Chair GPS Steering Group and/or

John Greenlees, Vice-President, LMS Council and Co-Chair of the Women in Mathematics Committee

11.15 Becoming an ATHENA Swan Silver award department

Beatrice Pelloni, School of Mathematical and Physical Sciences, University of Reading

Charles Taylor, School of Mathematics, University of Leeds

12.00 Applying for ATHENA Swan

Peter Clarkson, School of Mathematics, Statistics and Actuarial
Science, University of Kent

Sarah Dickinson, Senior Policy Adviser, Equality Challenge
Unit

13.00 - Lunch
13.45

13.45 Support for departments via the LMS website

<http://www.lms.ac.uk/content/support-departments>

Workshop participants are invited to comment on what content would be of value e.g. good practice concerning recruitment, networking, maternity/return policies.

Breakout session

14.45 Summing Up and Next Steps

Cathy Hobbs, Chair GPS Steering Group

15.15 End of meeting